Student Day is Tomorrow

As we finish up Catholic Schools Week, we will celebrate Students' Day tomorrow, January 30, 2013. The students are allowed to wear Free Dress as long as it is appropriate for church. If a student purchases his/her lunch in the cafeteria, they will receive a free cookie. The students will also enjoy a school wide bingo game before lunch. The day will conclude with a 1:15pm dismissal.

Pre-Registration for Current School Families

There are still a few families that have not returned their pre-registration forms to the school office for the 2013-2014 school year. We ask that these documents be returned as soon as possible to guarantee your child's spot for the upcoming year. These forms are located on the school website. GALA Update

The 2013 GALA is just a week away. We want to thank in advance all the SMM families for your support of this event that is sponsored by the PTO. We had terrific sales last night during conferences for the raffle items. A committee member will again be on hand this evening to answer any questions you may have. If you want to make that last minute purchase on a raffle item, they can help you with that as well.

Please remember if you plan on attending the event, we ask that you turn in your reply card tomorrow before Winter Break. This will allow us to give the caterer a final number for the dinner. Again, it is not too late to still sign-up to attend this special event. If you are interested, please contact Amy Waddell at 425-6255 as soon as possible. Also, please check the GALA website at <http://gala.tripcat.net/>.
